

The Prayers of the People Form I

With all our heart and with all our mind, let us pray to the Lord, saying, “Lord, have mercy.”

For the peace of the world, for the welfare of the holy Church of God, and for the unity of all peoples, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For our Bishop, and for all the clergy and people, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

For our President for the leaders of the nations, and for all in authority especially our service members: Jake & Christie Knight, Elizabeth Butler, Matthew Paiva, Debbie Cox, Corbin Warner, Andrew Turner and Rachel Beaudreau, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

For this city, for every city and community, and for those who live in them, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

For the good earth which God has given us, and for the wisdom and will to conserve it, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For the aged and infirm, for the widowed and orphans, and for the sick and the suffering especially: David, B, Jeff C., Paula A., Gerri, Paul, Wendy, Kyle, Jennifer, Christine, Jim, Joe, Mary Lou, Jessica, Bob, Tara, Fred, Claudia, Elaine, Andre, Terri, David, Matt B. Grace, Marjorie, Bill, Tom, Beth, Max, Jack, Diane & Vinnie, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

For the poor and the oppressed, for the unemployed and the destitute, for prisoners and captives, and for all who remember and care for them, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

For all who have died in the hope of the resurrection, and for all the departed, especially Melton & Harriet Irons, Lois Irons, Mary Irons and Shirley & Earle Davis, whose memory the flowers have been placed on the altar today, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

For deliverance from all danger, violence, oppression, and degradation, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

That we may end our lives in faith and hope, without suffering and without reproach, let us pray to the Lord.
Lord, have mercy.

In the communion of St. David and all the saints, let us commend ourselves, and one another, and all our life to Christ our God.

To thee, O Lord our God
